

"Someone else"

I'm walking down the streets
It's ten o'clock a.m.
I'm on my way back home again
I'm thinking of my girl
I'm thinking of myself
If I could be someone else
Yesterday is gone, tomorrow's gonna end
The future is not what it pretends
Everyday's the same
No sense more to complain
I have to loose this silly game

Chorus:

If I could be someone
Someone else, then I
I would not feel out of place
So in this case
I would not have this trouble
That makes me feel so mad
I would not feel out of place
If I could be, Someone else

Being always captured in a cage of time
A run of troubles to feel fine
I'm laughing at myself
I know I won't regret
Now it's time to place my bet
The game has just begun
The dices gonna roll
I'm not guilty, I control
Everyday's the same, no sense more to complain
Hell knows, I won't go insane

Chorus:

If I would be someone
Someone else, then I
I would feel out of place
So in this case
I would just have this trouble
That made me feel so mad
I would feel out of place
If I would be, Someone else

Bridge:

I wanna be alone, no I won't!
I'm going separate ways, no I don't!
(2x)

Chorus (vocal climax in instrumental bridge)
