

"The Attender"

Listen to me and take your time
I wanna tell you what life means to me
Listen to me, I realized
Things are not always as they seem to be
People meant to know,
All the things I shouldn't do
They kep telling what's the best for you
I didn't care, no no
I didn't mind
Curtains fell down, I could look behind
I could see the light

Chorus:

Find yourself and do what you wanna do
Live your dreams, they may come true
Free your mind, the answer is there for you
Live your dreams, they may come true

Now look at me, what do you see?
Life is unpredicted
If you don't know where you're standing
If you don't know where you've been
Listen to the whisper, saying
"Hey, my friend! How are you?
My name is independence. Take my advice,
Let's make a deal. Open yourself and feel me,
To be your attender, your defender!"

Chorus

Bridge:

The attender, independence, your defender
Always by your side
(4x)

Now you got me
There's nothing more to tell
You've got your path to choose.
There is nothing more to loose,
You will never be alone
There is always your attender
